THE WRECKAGE of the two cars involved denotes the seriousness of the accident Thursday evening which claimed the life of seven-year-old Terry Lynn Cobb, and injured five other persons, one critically. Charges of manslaughter were filed

Saturday morning against Thomas Ward, 38, 407 North El Segundo, driver of the vehicle at the right which was in the wrong lane of traffic.

Driver in Fatal Wreck Held for Manslaughter

Child Killed, Five Injured, in Auto Crash

Thomas Ward to Face Hearing as Result of Accident

A manslaughter charge was filed by Palm Springs police Saturday morning against Thomas Ward, 38, 407 North El Segundo, driver of one of the cars involved in a two-car collision at 7:40 p.m., Thursday, which claimed the life of seven-year-old Terry Lynn Cobb.

The little girl, daughter of Mrs. Betty Cobb, 27, 721 Highland drive, died at 4:20 a.m., Friday, at Desert hospital.

ALL SIX PERSONS in the two cars were injured, with one remaining on the critical list Saturday. This was Helen Campbell, 29, who suffered possible internal hemorrhages, and a large laceration on the forehead.

Others injured, who were termed in fair condition, were: Ward, internal hemorrhages, fractured right knee, possible rib fractures, internal injuries, and lacerations of the face and left hand.

George M. Campbell, 54, lacerations of the face, possible rib fractures, internal injuries, Mrs. George Campbell, 49, fractured leg, lacerations of the face.

WARD WAS ALONE in his car, and driver of the other vehicle is believed to have been Mrs. Cobb, mother of the victim, according to Officer Bob Flavin, who is in charge of investigation. Questioning of the family was not permitted up to Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell are the parents of Mrs. Cobb and Miss Campbell, and the grandparents of Terry Lynn.

The accident occurred in the 4700 block of East Ramon road, in the vicinity of the city dump. The Ward vehicle was traveling west, and the other car east.

WARD CLAIMED that he served to miss a vehicle passing the other car involved, causing his vehicle to go directly into the path of the oncoming car, Officer Flavin said.

Both cars were listed as total losses, with an aggregate value of $2000.

Funeral arrangements for Terry Lynn are incomplete at this time. Wiefels and Son Mortuary is in charge.

A coroner's inquest into the traffic fatality will be held at 11 a.m., Monday.

Start Drive to Safeguard Intersections

County planning commission is currently conducting an investigation of blind corners in the unincorporated area in the Palm Springs Unified School district, and is considering the possibility of enactment of an ordinance which would prohibit high walls or shrubbery at intersections.

This information was contained in a letter from Tyler Sues, county planning director, to George Bond, superintendent of transportation for the school district.

ACTION WAS REQUESTED by Bond following an accident some time ago involving a school bus and a private car, said caused by a high wall.

City council of Palm Springs last week instituted a similar survey as to blind corners in the Village, dealing first with those along Tamarisk road. The city now has an ordinance which regulates the height of walls, but there are non-conforming walls which were cited as dangerous to drivers.

City Manager R. W. Peterson and Public Works Director Frank Hamerschlag were authorized to confer with Tamarisk road corner property owners relative to the possibility of rounding off the corners of the high walls.

THIS SUGGESTION was made by Councilman Frank Miller, as a safety measure for drivers traveling Tamarisk road, and those entering the roadway from an adjacent street.

Bond, in a plea to residents of unincorporated property who are constructing buildings on corner lots, asked them to consider the safety of school children and others and not to cause additional blind corners before an ordinance can be enacted by the county.

Speed Plans Here to Fill Charter Election Petitions

Plans to speed signing of petitions seeking an election to name a board of Freeholders to draw up a county charter were discussed here Thursday at a meeting at Desert Inn Coffee Shop by county leaders of the movement and Villagers. Howard Barrett, executive secretary of the County-Wide Charter committee, and Herbert Eccleston, of Desert Hot Springs, financial chairman of the organization, met with Mayor Florian G. Boyd, Earl Coffman, Herbert Esbitt, president-elect of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Don Miller, Terry Ray, Xavier Lucius, Chamber of Commerce manager, Ward J. Risvold and Oliver B. Jaynes of The Desert

Sun and Ray Corliss of the Chamber, to outline plans for further financing to complete the petition campaign. With almost 250 petitions still out and unreported, it was estimated that almost 8,000 signatures have been obtained. The Charter committee is seeking 12,000 signatures, 2,000 more than required.

The petitions were put into circulation at a meeting at Rancho Mirage a few weeks ago when county supervisors refused to call an election of Freeholders. The campaign to force action through the petitions, followed immediately.

The drive for signatures will be centered in the Palm Springs area this week.

Fruit Scattered Over Highway in Truck Wreck

Two persons suffered minor injuries and a truckload of oranges and grapefruit was scattered over the highway when a truck and car side-swiped at 2:45 p.m., Friday, at the intersection of Highway 111 and Tipton road, near the Southern Pacific depot.

Vincente Hernandez, 45, Mexicali, driver of the truck, suffered lacerations of the hand, and Mrs. Edith Lucas, 677 Paseo Anza, passenger in the car, was

TRIBUTE FUND BOARD TO MEET TOMORROW

Annual meeting of the board of directors of the Nellie Coffman Tribute Fund will be held at 9 a.m., Tuesday, May 10, at the Bank of America, Mrs. B. H. Poliak, chairman, announces. Grants made during the past year will be reviewed by the directors.

Members of the board besides Mrs. Poliak are Mrs. Charles Henderson, Mrs. Culver Nichols, Mrs. Earl Coffman, Carl Lykken, Leo Baker and Fred Ingram.

The Tribute Fund board grants friendly aid to deserving residents temporarily in need of assistance, and whom the board feels has the courage to rehabilitate themselves.

Contributions to the fund are usually made at times of bereavement, or in commemoration of a happy event.

It was established at the

Edgar B. Schill at Thunderbird

Edgar C. Schill, manager of Knollwood Country club, Birmingham, Michigan, has been named manager of Thunderbird Ranch and Country Club to succeed Si Slocum, who recently resigned.

Schill expects to take over his new duties as of June 1.

He has an outstanding record in club and resort management. Thunderbird officials said in making the announcement.

MAGIC COMES TO THE SUN to discuss the fine points of the next convention of the Men's Apparel Guild in California. Present at the time was Harold West, president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, seen on the right, and Mr. and Mrs. Knute Thorsen, executive director of MAGIC. Tentative dates were set for October 21 and 22 of this year with headquarters for the meeting to take place at El Mirador hotel. Ray Corliss, publicity director for the Chamber and Bill Rashall, promotion manager of The Desert Sun sat in on the talks.

Rosen Reelected as Chairman of Retail Division

Adrian Rosen was reelected as chairman of the Retail Merchants Division of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, and as president of its independent counterpart, the Retail Merchants Association, at the organizational meeting held by directors Thursday evening in the Chamber offices.

Frank Prince was elected vice chairman of the Chamber Division, and other officers of the association are: D. C. Stachler, first vice president; George Beebe, Jr., second vice president; Larry Quinn, treasurer, and Stan Jaloff, secretary.

THE OFFICERS of the two groups will act as the executive committee.

Newly elected directors are: D. C. Stachler and Katie Nelson, three years; Claude Thompson and Mabel Russell, two years; Carl Derbonne and H. F. Baker, one year. Hold-over directors are: Rosen, Quinn, Beebe, Jaloff, Leo Baker, R. J. Beck, Hy Finerman, Bob McKenzie, Marjorie St. Cyr, Attorney David McGahey is counsel for the two groups.

FIRST ACTION taken by the new board was adoption of a resolution which pledged support to the Junior Chamber of Commerce's plans for a free Fireworks Display July 4. A donation to the Jaycees as an aid in sponsorship of the event was approved.

School Board Meets Thursday Evening

Board of education of Palm Springs Unified school district met last Thursday night in an adjourned session and transacted routine business left over from the long April meeting.

The board will meet again next Thursday night in regular session.

Welfare Sale

One Tomorrow, Last One May 24

One of the last two sales of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association's "Little House" will be held Tuesday at 9:30 a.m., with the final one to follow May 24 at the same hour.

Both will be held at 400 East Amado road, and will feature clean, used Summer clothing for the entire family, as well as household articles of many kinds.

PRESS TO GO ON GRID AT DINNER TOMORROW

Press representatives from the Palm Springs area braced themselves today to take their roasting with the best of grace when the Retail Merchants go to work on them Tuesday evening at the Chi Chi as part of the 2nd annual Gridiron dinner.

Adrian Rosen, president of the Retail Merchants Division of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce has announced that there are still a very few tickets available for the affair at his shop and at the Chamber.

Held yearly, in emulation of the famous Washington press gridiron dinners, the occasion both honors and lampoons the newspeople. This year, Tom Kieley, of the Desert Inn, will act as master of ceremonies and the program has been written by Art Wile, of the Tahquitz Vista. Headliner Tommy Noonan, of the regular Chi Chi floor show, will also join in needling, puncturing the press with barbs fashioned from their own foibles.

The evening will feature a New York cut dinner, the press festivities, and the Chi Chi show as a package. Tickets are $5 per person.

Last year's gridiron go-round filled the Starlight Room and convulsed those attending throughout the affair. Another jammed house is expected.

TRAVEL SURVEY TO AID IN VILLAGE PLANNING

Where do our visitors come from?

For many years everyone has had a pretty good idea but now we are going to know for sure.

The world-wide picture of travel to the Palm Springs area is beginning to shape up as part of the transportation survey being conducted for the city by H. C. Timberlake, consultant from Madison, Wisconsin. His assistants, Cub Parker and Wesley Naef, both of Palm Springs, are busily combing hotel registration records and charting the information on maps.

Some half way through the huge task at present, already some interesting facts are coming to light.

For one thing, the Palm Springs area draws surprisingly heavy from some heretofore unnoticed areas and lightly from some long considered to be primary markets. Different hotels, with different promotional approaches, may draw much of their trade from special geographical pockets, with little or no competitive overlap.

While fundamentally designed to discover what the area's immediate and future needs may be in improved air travel, both Mayor Florian

Boyd and Chamber Manager Xavier Lucius have found that the facts gathered during the survey will have many future applications in desert area plans.

They urge that all persons traveling to or from Riverside County points during the month of May fill in one of the questionnaires being circulated and return it to the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. The facts gained thereby, they stress, may have great bearing on the continued growth of the area and the convenience of its transportation.

Short Trip

Police Run Across Street, Halt Fire

Police averted a possible fire at the Cork 'n Bottle, 324 North Palm Canyon drive, about 1:05 a.m., Friday, by disconnecting a refrigeration unit in which the motor had burned out.

Aid was requested by Mrs. Ann Portnoy, and an officer immediately went across the street to the establishment.

Open House at Desert Hospital Next Thursday

Annual Open House at Desert hospital will be held from 2:30 to 4 p.m. Thursday, Administrator Robert Henwood announces.

Guided tours for visitors have been planned, to be followed by tea served in the hospital dining room.

Each year the Congress of the United States designates one week to be known as National Hospital Week in honor of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the famous nurse crusader whose pioneer service led to improvement of hospital care, and to impress upon the public the importance of hospitals in the American community and their tradition of devoted service to the people.

The public is invited to visit Desert hospital Thursday and see the hospital of this community in action, Henwood said.

JOE E. BROWN'S LIFE STORY WRITTEN HERE

By BILL RASHALL

Sat in the study of Village Author Ralph Hancock, a neighbor of mine, the other day and listened to him ask questions of Joe E. Brown, the little man with the big mouth, the sad eyes, set in webs of deeply-grooved laughter lines that criss-cross his face.

Author Hancock was prompting the little man of great comedy into talking about himself. And Hancock, who is the author of the recent biography of Douglas Fairbanks and some 15 other books, has been prompting the reticent, soft-spoken actor to talk about himself for several weeks now and may continue for some weeks to come, until Hancock will know Joe E. Brown almost as well as the actor knows himself.

THE TWO ARE collaborating on the Joe E. Brown story which Hancock will write but which is as yet untitled.

When I intruded on the interview Joe E. Brown was recalling some of his experiences during World War II when he traveled up to front lines in the South Pacific to entertain our fighting men.

"You know," Brown said, "I captured a Jap prisoner. It was way up under the booming guns and occasional artillery fire of the Japs. Started to return to our base camp but was informed that the Japs had captured a section of the road over which my return route would take me. Kept on joking and ribbing our fighting boys when quite suddenly an emaciated Jap appeared. The man was sick of body and sick of war. I yelled before anybody else that "he's my prisoner" and the boys allowed me to take the enemy in tow and all the way back to our base camp where he was hospitalized."

THE MEMORY of this incident tickled Joe E. Brown, especially when months later this same prisoner with 30 pounds of weight returned to his body by good American care and chow, "hailed me as a long lost brother."

Listened for a little while longer while Hancock's recording machine caught every word and inflection of Joe E. Brown's recitation. A novel way of conducting an interview—if only newspaper reporters could carry one of these machines around with them, into jail houses for interviews with prisoners, offices of tycoons spouting about prospects of prosperity or depressions and—particularly—when interviewing a politician who then could not claim that he was misquoted.

BROWN WAS CALLED out to answer the call of a long distance telephone operator and I turned to Hancock.

"I don't have to interview Joe E. Brown, really. You could give me a quicker insight into the man's life better perhaps than he could himself," Hancock smiled and really did not answer completely but the next day he wrote me the following note. In part, it reads as follows:

"Joe's rise from a circus acrobat to the man with more medals, citations, honorary memberships, keys to cities, plaques, and kudos than anyone living should be interesting reading. Anyone who could parlay a big mouth and a whimsical nature into a special place in the hearts of millions of people must have had his share of ups and downs.

"A fool is not funny. It takes a man of intelligence, with a finely developed sense of humor to be a successful comedian. Even with all those qualities a man cannot be a great comedian unless he has a great heart, unless he likes people, is tolerant of people, understands and respects them. Joe E. Brown is a great comedian. 'Ralph' he said, 'when you get around to titling this one, may we suggest calling it 'He Said a Mouthful'?"

DURING MY SHORT conversation with Joe E. Brown other memories of World War II were recalled. His son, John L. Brown, was captain in charge of special services at the Army Air base here in Palm Springs. And bitter memories came surging back for Brown to be reflected in his gentle eyes when the death of his son, Don E. Brown, who was also stationed here at Palm Springs was recalled. The aircraft in which he was flying crashed northwest of Palm Springs.

Joe E. Brown was born in Holgate, Ohio, in 1892, one of seven children. Recently Brown appeared on the TV program "This is Your Life" and he recalled with some feeling that his aged mother was flown from Toledo, Ohio, by the producers of the program to appear with her son.

Rated as one of the great contemporary actors of the day, Joe E. Brown played the starring role in "Harvey" for five seasons on Broadway, London and South America. He just finished a new motion picture, the title of which I failed to jot down in my notes.

So, Joe, please forgive me for not giving you that little plug and thanks, Ralph Hancock, for the opportunity you afforded me in meeting such a great little big man like Joe, "You Said a Mouthful" Brown.

THE LITTLE MAN with the wide mouth grin that made him famous and Ralph Hancock, Village author are pictured above in the latter's study as the two go over the first rough draft of the as yet untitled Joe E. Brown story. Hancock, who did the recent biography of Douglas Fairbanks, and some fifteen other books, says that he is getting more fun out of writing this one than any of his other books.

Loss of a green fibre-covered pillow from the front seat of his car parked in a downtown parking lot Thursday was reported to police by William H. Copeland, 140 South Palm Canyon drive.

Council Resolution Pays Tribute to A. G. McManus

City council of the City of Palm Springs by official resolution joined other Villagers in extending condolences to Mrs. Austin G. McManus on the death of her husband last week.

The resolution follows: "Whereas, the members of the city council of the City of Palm Springs desire to record their sorrow upon learning of the death of Austin G. McManus; and

"Whereas, we, the members of this city council, join with the many Villagers who cherish the long friendship we have enjoyed with this man of good will;

"Now therefore be it resolved that the city council of the City of Palm Springs does hereby give sincere expression of the loss to Palm Springs through the death of Austin G. McManus and does hereby note in its records the passing from this life of a man who was esteemed by his associates, loved by his friends and respected by all.

"Resolved further that a copy of this resolution be tendered to his widow, Mrs. Pearl McManus, as a humble expression of our heartfelt sympathy in her bereavement."

Mr. McManus was a member of the first city council of the City of Palm Springs.

Two-County Blood Bank to be at Hospital on May 16

Monthly visit of the Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank will be Monday, May 16, at Desert hospital, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Hospital Administrator Robert Henwood announces.

This is one of the most important visits of the year, Henwood said, as it may be the last one before the fall season.

"We have been informed that another visit may be made in June, but no confirmation has been received," he continued.

Villagers wishing to establish their own private Blood Bank, in order that it may be available to themselves, their relatives and friends, should do so at the May 16 visit, or they may have to go to the San Bernardino headquarters during the summer to replace blood used, the hospital administrator said.

Reservations for the donating of blood may be made by calling the hospital, 2251. A quota of 25 pints has been established.

Coats and Blanket Stolen from Auto

Theft of two coats and a blanket from his car parked near the intersection of Indian avenue and Tachevah drive from 8 p.m. to midnight Thursday was reported to police by Lewis Murphy, 329 North Calle Encilla.

Chamberlins Recall Early Day Life in Palm Springs

By DON KLOTZBUECHER

Remember when —
The only marking at the north end of the Village was a United States Rubber company sign in the shape of an open book which read, "You are now entering Palm Springs," and there wasn't even a house in sight?

There was only an oil strip down the center of the street, with broken edges, and it was then known as Main street?

A small creek ran across the highway with a few boards over it for a bridge, and through the property now occupied by the Safeway store and Thrifty Drug store?

EVERYBODY USED kerosene for hot water tanks and stoves, and some still used old style kerosene lamps, as electricity had been in use here for about one year?

If you don't remember . . . you are not a Pioneer.

C. G. Chamberlin and his wife Sophie, do remember all these things, as they said in their contribution to early days in the Village, which they submitted to the Palm Springs Historical Society, and which is on record in the Welwood Murray Memorial Library.

THEY CAME HERE during the first part of 1923, as Mrs. Chamberlin had pneumonia, and her doctor ordered her to leave the Santa Monica Bay region and move to Palm Springs. The U. S. Rubber company sign was their first welcome to Palm Springs.

They stayed for a week in a tent house in the yard of the Bunker Hotel (now a parking lot) run by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, and the location of the tent house is now the present

Awards Given to Girl Scouts at Court of Honor

Annual Court of Awards of Palm Springs Girl Scouts Thursday evening at Katherine Finch school was an enthusiastic success as members of twelve troops received badge awards and ranks earned during the past year.

The program was opened with the presentation of colors by Troop No. 5 and included a skit with a member of each troop participating. The investiture of Brownies into Intermediate Scouting was followed by Brownie Troop No. 7, Cathedral City, dancing the Hokey Pokey, and a piano selection was played by Cynthia Rojo, Troop No. 9.

The presentation of 300 awards and ranks earned during the year was climaxed by Kathleen De Santis receiving her Curved Bar rank and two girls who were awarded coveted "Camperships" for outstanding work in the field of Scouting. The Camperships, a two week trip to Azalea Trails in Idyllwild were given to Cynthia Rojo of Troop No. 9, sponsored by the Jewish Women's Club and Karen Hanson Troop No. 21, sponsored by the local council.

The Court of Awards chairmaned by Mrs. Marjorie Anderson, president of the local council, closed with the singing of Taps. Hostess for the evening was Troop No. 15.

Palm Valley School Shows Largest Gains in History

More enrollments for the next fall term have been made at this time, than at any similar time in the history of the school. J. Blake Field, owner-director of Palm Valley school, private co-educational day school, announced this week.

According to advance registration it is very probable that some classes will be filled before the end of the summer months. Field said as he urged parents planning on enrolling their children for the 1955-56 term to do so immediately.

This is particularly true of the junior high grades, he added. Palm Valley school will continue to operate under its noted principle of small classes and a large amount of individual attention, with a maximum of 12 or 13 students in any grade, five through 12.

Next school term will start on September 26, one week ahead of the customary time, and will close May 30.

Palm Valley School is a fully accredited school with the University of California, state accrediting agency, and therefore with any other college and university in the country.

Police to Attend Class in Indio

Palm Springs police officers not on duty will attend an instruction meeting at 7 p.m., Tuesday, May 17, in the courthouse at Indio, Chief August G. Kettmann announces.

In charge of the meeting, which will cover all phases of "Witnesses in Court," will be Deputy District Attorney Dick Marsh.

Jaycee to Install Thursday Night

Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet Thursday evening at The Ranch club for its annual dinner meeting and to install new officers for the year.

Officers to be seated are Herbert Esbitt, president; Don Bortoff and Howard Haddock, vice presidents; Joe Wood, secretary and Maurice Smith, treasurer.

President Esbitt announced that he had appointed Bill Bronstein as chairman for the annual Fourth of July fireworks celebration and that other clubs in the city were being contacted to assist in the event as usual.

Baccalaureate Services to be Held at School

Principal Henry Greeley of Palm Springs high school announced Friday that the annual Baccalaureate sermon this year will be presented at the high school gymnasium instead of at a local church as in former years.

The date is May 22 and the time will be 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. William A. Blondon, rector of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church, will deliver the sermon.

Invocation will be pronounced by Rabbi Leon W. Rosenberg of Temple Isaiah of the Jewish Community Center. Principal Greeley also announced that presentation of awards to high school seniors will be made at morning assemblies Monday and Tuesday, May 23 and 24, instead of on the night of Commencement, May 27.

Perhaps the trips suggested here should be titled The Trip of Any Week When the hunting and fishing seasons are right.

Palm Springs and its surrounding desert and mountain areas have some solid answers to an old problem of the outdoorsman. That is the perpetual problem of how to placate the bereft and left-home wife when you head for the fish and game country.

The solution is simple and definitive.

Leave her basking by a Palm Springs pool. In the future, her eyes will light up when you start searching for your waders or your Royal Coachman.

And much in the surrounding area is rewarding for those who take the trouble to find, and get to, the game country.

RIGHT NOW it is trout season, so we'll start there. Andreas and Tahquitz have been planted and are worth the dangling of an egg or a worm. Both are easy of access and therefore fairly heavily fished (there were an estimated 400 fishermen, women and children lining Tahquitz opening morning). High in Andreas and Murray there are some good-sized locked trout but this is rugged country and be sure you are accompanied by an experienced person. Snow Creek Canyon is closed to fishing. Up Whitewater Canyon and White-water Creek there is a commercial rainbow farm where good-sized fish and catches are guaranteed, and equipment may be rented.

On the Idyllwild side of the San Jacinto massive are two lakes, Hemet and Fulmer, one to the south and the other to the north of the mountain village. Both may be fished with some expectation of results.

Deer hunting is from fair to good in the Little San Bernardino on the slopes of Mt. San Geronimo, in the San Jacintos and in the Santa Rosas to the south. The San Jacintos may be approached by pack train by way of Andreas and West Fork Canyons and although not for the tenderfoot, are rewarding deer country, little trammelled. On top, some of the most beautiful country, sub-alpine and brook-laced, is in a game preserve but some hardy hunters enter from Idyllwild, Banning and Thomas Mt. with good results. Check on the fire conditions, get a fire permit, and be sure you know the boundaries of the game preserve. A good rule of thumb is that when it is level enough to walk it is probably preserve—when you fall off, you can hunt on the way down. This country, however, is so dramatic and pleasant, and the views so grand, that hunting need be only an excuse for a trip in. Pack equipment, horses and guides may be obtained either in Palm Springs or Idyllwild.

Palm Springs is a well-rounded resort area with something to do for everyone.

By CHRISTY COMERSE

This is the ninth of a series of Desert Sun articles designed to point up some of the many things to see and do in the Palm Springs area. The articles will be slanted to both visitors and villagers. Many residents become so caught up in the busy Palm Springs world, that they, too, need reminding of the nearby wonders. Photos and text are courtesy of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce.

to open new trails and to improve those presently existing. The West Fork trail was greatly improved this year and the re-opening of the old Gordon Trail, a direct route to the very top of Tahquitz with its great camping sites, is under discussion.

The Coachella Valley offers good dove and quail shooting and the entire desert area has fine jackrabbit and cottontail hunting in season. The only pheasants nearby are a few bands of Chukkas which have been planted. They are hard to find and have a very short season. Ducks and geese fly pretty well in the Salton Sea area and there are some State blinds in that locality.

Hunting with a camera is always good everywhere, with the rare but real possibility of the stalking and picturing of both wild horses and big horn sheep. It's a big country and much of it is open to all to enjoy. Every hour in it is an adventure. And it's a magic healer.

A few warnings—rattlers and sidewinders, while not a big danger, should not be forgotten; the pitch of the slopes are deceiving and rock climbing is only for the proficient and wary; know where your next water is coming from; and play it extremely safe with fire.

Local Cancer Drive Still $250 Short Says Chairman

"Knowing where the money goes is the right of everyone who contributes to the American Cancer Society's 1955 Crusade," said Mrs. Milton M. Portis, chairman of the Palm Springs Unit, at a meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. John Clark, Education and Publicity chairman. Miss Ruth Sougey, secretary, was also present.

Plans were discussed to wind up the Palm Springs campaign in order to achieve the $4,000 goal. $250 must still be collected. All who have not yet contributed are urged to send their checks now to: "Cancer, Palm Springs."

Reviewing the aims of the cancer crusade, it was pointed out that the yearly appeal, through letter and personal solicitation, aims at the dual goal of raising funds and educating the public to the danger of cancer.

Contributions are channeled into the ACS program of cancer control in the fields of research, education and service, through the national headquarters in New York, the state divisions and the county branches.

"Although the Riverside county branch is part of a national voluntary organization, a high percentage of the money collected here is earmarked for use locally. Breaking down fund allocations according to percentages," she said, "we find 50 percent remains in the county. This goes for year-round public education programs to put everyone on guard against cancer, for professional education activities which help disseminate information on latest cancer techniques to medical men, and for service projects that give direct aid to needy cancer patients."

Another 25 percent of the money supports cancer research across the nation. With approximately $5,500,000 designated for cancer research, lack of sufficient funds still prevents the ACS from granting numerous requests for financial assistance from qualified scientists. "Ten percent underwrites additional research projects throughout California and helps pay for special educational materials used by county branches. The final 15 percent of money collected is allotted to the national organization for production of films, literature and education materials used in Riverside county and across the nation."

"As a result, contributors to the Cancer Crusade are assured that every dollar is a sound investment in the intensive struggle against man's cruellest enemy, a foe that will strike one out of every four Americans at some time in their lives. "Awareness of this fact should be the only impetus needed to give generously to the all-out crusade against this disease, which is the nation's No. 2 killer," Mrs. Portis concluded.

List Hours for Softball League Team Practice

Schedule for the second week of practice in the Desert Softball League at the Polo Grounds follows:

Monday, Mhoon and Mhoon-Palm Springs All Stars; Tuesday, Palm House-Mexican Colony; Wednesday, Desert Nite Hawks-Palm Springs All Stars; Thursday, Mhoon and Mhoon-Palm House; Friday, Mexican Colony-Desert Nite Hawks.

Practice sessions start at 7 p.m., and last three hours. Umpires are still needed for league play which starts May 31 and continues every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday until the last week in August. Persons interested are asked to contact City Recreation Director Howard Haddock, phone 2202 or 4737.

High School Net Play Nears End

Annual tennis round-robin conducted by Palm Springs high school to determine the school's Outstanding Boy and Girl tennis player is expected to be concluded Wednesday.

Names of the winners will be engraved on permanent trophies donated to the school by George Ripley and Charles Farrell.

SMC Women Host Cochran Club Group

Members of the Lady Golfers of Shadow Mountain club will meet today for luncheon, after the regular Monday morning play, at the home of June Goodman.

Last Monday they were host to women golfers from the Cochran club. Their guests were Jewel Flick, Jop Pauley, Frances George, Helen Bush, Frances Talbot and Jean McIntosh.

Round Robin Tennis Play Starts Tonight

Round Robin evening tennis matches at Shadow Mountain club will start this evening. Games are planned every Monday and Thursday evening.

Ice Cream Social Scheduled Friday

Second annual Old-Fashioned Ice Cream social of Sunday school classes of Palm Springs Community church will be held Friday night outdoors on the church parking lot.

A musical program has been planned for the event.

Hemet Hands 4th Straight Defeat to Indian Team

Palm Springs Indians dropped their fourth consecutive Riverside County League baseball game Friday, this time to the Hemet Bulldogs by a 12 to 1 score.

Outcome of the contest never was in doubt after the second and third innings, as the Bulldogs pushed across two runners in the second, and then exploded for eight more in the third.

Only Indian run came in the fifth on a double by Dave Martinez, and singles by Sam Jones and Ronnie Canales.

Jimmy Judd, local hurler, allowed 11 hits in taking the loss. His teammates were able to collect only five hits off the pitching of Ray Sims.

The win was the fourth straight for Hemet, and they now are tied with Coachella for the league lead.

Next game for the Indians will be May 12 with Perris coming here. Other RCL games scheduled are Beaumont at Coachella, Banning at Elsinore, and Hemet at San Jacinto.

Raid Alert Not Noticed in City

The air raid alert which alarmed most of the western states Thursday morning passed almost unnoticed in Palm Springs.

Robert W. Peterson, head of Civil Defense in Palm Springs, received the alert and was prepared to act when the all-clear signal came.

Local radio stations did not go off the air.

Oliver to Speak at Indio Meeting

Harry Oliver, of Desert Rat Scrapbook fame, will address the Indio Rotary Club at noon, Tuesday, at its weekly luncheon meeting at the Indio Hotel.

Oliver's subject will be "The Joshua Tree National Monument."

Districting Case in Court Monday

Oral arguments based on papers and authorities heretofore submitted in the redistricting case, will be heard by Judge John G. Gabbert at 10 a.m. Monday, May 10, in superior court in Riverside.

Wednesday Last Day in Tennis Consolation Play

Wednesday is the deadline for playing off all preliminary matches in the Consolation Men's and Women's singles of the City Recreation Senior Tennis tournament. Director Howard Haddock reminded entrants today.

Drawings are posted at the Racquet Club, Tennis Club and Elliott's Sportsmen's Center.

Toy Library to Close Until Fall

Junior Welfare Toy Library will close at 11:30 a.m. Saturday for the Summer months after its most successful season. Mrs. Helen Peterson, director, said Friday. The library, located on the grounds of Frances E. Stevens school will reopen in the Fall.

The library will be open from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. as usual Saturday and prizes will be awarded to the boy and girl who have made the best use of toys this year.

All toys, now out, must be returned by Saturday morning.

All of the toys in the library have been donated and any person wishing to add to the collection is urged to contact Mrs. Peterson at the Frances E. Stevens school kindergarten.

Start Plans for Second Round in Polio Inoculations

Request for additional Salk polio vaccine for administering the second schedule of inoculations was submitted last Friday to the National Foundation for Public Health.

As soon as word is received as to when the shipment will arrive here, a schedule for the vaccinations will be set.

The vaccine requested is for first and second grade students.

Water Co. Stock Issue Approved

Approval was voted by the state board of public utilities last week to an application of the Palm Springs Water company to issue 487 1/2 shares of five per cent preferred stock at an aggregate value of $48,750.

The money will be used for extensive improvements of the company's facilities here.

County Building in Palm Springs Area Booming

Palm Springs area unincorporated territory topped the county again in building during April, Charles Bixel, county building inspector, said last week.

New construction in the territory embraced by the Palm Springs Unified school district amounted to $343,802, well ahead of any other county district.

These figures include the territory from Desert Hot Springs to Thousand Palms and Rancho Mirage. Much of the new construction was in Cathedral City where many homes have been built or are being built.

Many new homes have also been started in Palm Desert but are not included in the local total as the area is in the Indio school district. That district was second to Palm Springs in April with a $245,617 total.

'Little Princess' to be Presented Friday Evening

Children's Theater Guild will present "The Little Princess" by Frances Hodgson Burnett in the auditorium of the Frances Stevens school, 538 North Palm Canyon drive, Friday at 7:30 p.m.

The three-act play which is the dramatization of the beloved story of Sara Crew, a little rich girl who becomes a slave in the school where she formerly had been the darling of everybody, is being produced and directed by Edith Kopelson who has presented it many times in Los Angeles and Beverly Hills and it represents an ambitious undertaking for the local group.

Among the children active in the dramatic work of the Guild are Mary Patterson, Karen Wallington, Donivee Ellison, Leann and young Bob Howard, Linda Ketchers, Sandra Babcock, Linda Boyle, Thomas Cole, Pamela Tackett, Patricia Sanders.

This year's presentation marks the fifth annual offering of the Children's Theater Guild which was started in Palm Springs in 1951 by Mrs. Kopelson.

LEAVE FOR COLORADO

Mrs. Fred Clatworthy Sr. and daughter, Miss Helen Clatworthy, are leaving for their Summer home in Estes Park, Colorado. They have spent the past 20 Winters in Palm Springs.

Dear Palm Springs, Cathedral City and Rancho Mirage Residents;

With hot weather just around the corner it's time we face some cold facts about the best type of cooling. Sure thing, I'm talking about refrigeration cooling.

We know uncomfortable-wise 120 weather here, because we lack humidity is not as bad as 85 to 95 humidity loaded weather elsewhere. We also know refrigeration room coolers are simply wonderful . . . BUT when you read the pamphlets, they put out in all honesty . . . remember they are talking about the majority of the country . . . not our glorious but hot desert . . . and the efficiency required to bring a 90 to a 100 degree room down to say 80, is quite different from the efficiency required to bring a 116 to 126 room down to the same 80.

So any refrigeration pamphlet that says a given size motor is adequate for a given cubic space is, in reality adequate for only 1/2 that space on the desert. That is the reason you should have a trained refrigeration cooling engineer advise the unit that is right for your particular need regardless of the outside temperature.

One of the many advantages of Frigidaire room units is the fact that you can use your present 110 volt circuit, no special re-wiring, for a 3/4 or 1 horsepower motor is needed. When you want completely adequate cooling, you want Frigidaire cooling, with its twin compressors which automatically cycle down to 1/2 the air volume and power cost as the cooling need lessens.

May we have the privilege of showing you why Frigidaire cooling is perfect cooling, why for both economy and comfort it is the most satisfactory cooling.

Sincerely yours,

Ray Abby

Improvements on Highway 111 Talked by Group

Plans for continued and greater activity by the Highway 111 association were discussed at a meeting of the organization's board of directors last week.

Approval was given plans for a sign at the Blythe cut-off, similar to the sign at the west end of Highway 111, to encourage travel over the scenic "Date Garden Drive," when crossing the desert either east or west.

AN ORDER WAS PLACED for 25,000 brochures publicizing the desert's "Winter Wonderland." These will be distributed to key points of the nation during the Summer.

It was decided to postpone the annual meeting originally scheduled for May, until September when officers will be elected. Problems of highway congestion and possible re-routing of Highway 111 will be given top priority by the association, it was decided.

MEMBERSHIP DUES were reduced to $12 annually in the hope of obtaining a larger and more diversified representation of the area.

It was announced that information about the association will be available at the Cathedral City office of Citizens National bank during the Summer months.

shaken up by the impact. Both remained at Desert hospital overnight.

DRIVER OF THE CAR was Mrs. Irene B. Parker, Los Angeles, and another passenger in the vehicle was Edna Monroe of Beverly Hills.

Both vehicles were traveling east on Highway 111, when Mrs. Parker started to pass the truck on the two-lane highway. At the time, according to Officer Bob Flavin, who investigated, it is believed the truck started to turn left onto Tipton road.

HERNANDEZ CLAIMED that he was traveling straight ahead, but this testimony was not corroborated by his son, who told of his father taking the wrong road and turning in order to get back onto the right road, Flavin said.

The truck overturned as a result of the impact and the car left the highway and traveled into the loose sand off the shoulder.

Passing motorists and nearby residents aided highway crews in cleaning the highway of oranges and grapefruit.

Damage to the car was estimated at $400.

MAJOR HAROLD E. DAVIS of Ground Observation Headquarters, Norton Air Force Base, will present awards for faithful service in the local Ground Observer Corps at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, at ceremonies in the Frances Stevens school auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

Awards to be Presented GOC Members Tomorrow

Awards for faithful service in the local Ground Observer Corps will be presented by Major Harold E. Davis of Ground Observation Headquarters, Norton Air Force Base, at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 10, at ceremonies in the Frances Stevens school auditorium.

Major Davis will present several wings to new observers who have served for 25 hours on the post; 100-hour awards to Hilda Schaeffer and Jeffrey Shaw; 250-hour award to George Harz; 500-hour award to Walter Pagan, chief observer of the local post; and 750 hour award to Isidor Rothchild. Rothchild will also receive a recruiting certificate.

All villagers are invited to attend the very interesting program which the Air Force will present following the awards. Colonel O. S. Drescher will explain the effects of a radioactive fall-out in the desert area, and discuss effective shelters and proper preparation of food and water supply. A question period will follow this talk.

To conclude the evening a film, "The Steel Ring," will be shown, which deals with the wall of defense around the continental United States.

Pastor Opens Foreign Car Sales Office in Village

Palm Springs long a mecca for foreign-make automobiles may now take its place with metropolitan cities where such cars are sold.

This week Nick Pastor, well known throughout Southern California as one of the leading dealers in foreign-make automobiles officially announced the opening of a division of his South Gate sales offices at 496 North Palm Canyon drive.

At the same time it was also learned that the leading salesman of such automobiles in America, Earl Grace, who has worked in South Gate for several years, is the new manager of the foreign car sales rooms here.

The new Village firm which will operate under the name of Nick Pastor has on display the English Triumph, one of the most popular cars in that country. Grace is the only American to receive a trophy marking him as the first American to be handed such an award for outstanding salesmanship in the sales of the English Triumph.

In addition to the Triumph, other automobiles on display are the Mercedes-Benz, Hillman Minx, English Fords, and the famed French Renault.

Grace and his wife, long time visitors to Palm Springs plan now to make this Village their home. Mrs. Grace who speaks five languages has been active in social organizations in Southern California and during the years acted as interpreter for various governments in Miami and elsewhere. Grace at one time was coach of the Army boxing team; served with the Army Air Forces as an aviator during World War II. The couple still maintain a home in Miami and in Havana, Cuba.

Dr. M. W. Addes Practicing Here

Dr. M. W. Addes, dentist, formerly of El Cajon, is now practicing his profession in the Professional building in Palm Desert in the same suite of offices occupied by Dr. Willard Cockerill.

Dr. Addes and his wife, Else, who assists him, are residents of Palm Springs. The dentist is a graduate of the University of Illinois, College of Dentistry, class of 1925. He was the first in his profession to use motion pictures while attending to the teeth of children and that was back in 1934. Dentists throughout the country are now using this method to detract the attention of children from the fear of the dental chair.

Optimist Club of Palm Springs Now Organized

Palm Springs Optimist club was formally organized at a dinner meeting at The Ranch club last week.

William Whitely was elected president of the new service club, J. A. Bowman and Jess Gardner, vice presidents; Theo Wallington, secretary; Harry Bernstein, treasurer.

Directors elected for the two-year term were A. R. Simon and Mathew Madison. Elected to the one-year term were Thor Fredrickson and Paul Watkins.

By-laws were adopted and Wednesday noon selected for the regular weekly luncheon meetings at The Ranch club. The new club will be affiliated with District 14 of Optimist clubs. The district covers Southern California and Arizona.

Principal projects of the Optimist club will be youth work.

Burning Ban

In Effect June 1

Until October 21

Summer burning policy within the city limits will be the same as last year, city council decided Tuesday evening.

Burning will be permitted between 8 a.m. and noon, from June 1 through October 31, provided a permit is first secured from the fire department.

Council several years ago adopted a "no burning" policy during the other months to ensure the continuation of the clear pure air for which the Village is noted.

WALLET GONE

Loss or theft of a wallet containing personal identification was reported to police Thursday by Anna Steen, 300 North Ramon road.

Desert Sun, Howard Barrett, Charter Committee executive secretary, Mayor Florian G. Boyd, Earl Coiman, Herbert Eshitz and Don Miller of the Junior Chamber, Harold West and Adrian Rosen.

PALM DESERT

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN

DESERT ROTARY COUNCIL

Monthly meeting of Desert Council of Rotary was held last week at Shadow Mountain club with Ole Nordland of Indio presiding. Rotarians from Desert Hot Springs, Palm Desert, Indio and Twenty-nine Palms were present.

PALM DESERT BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis entertained last week at Shadow Mountain club at a dinner party celebrating their wedding anniversary. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pierson and their son, Mr. and Mrs.

Beyers of Los Angeles and Miss Barbara Knesel of Alhambra. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Quick were with a group of friends at the club last week.

Miss Betty Stromnes, well known artist who designs the posters for American Air Lines, is a guest at Sun and Shadow. Mrs. Charlotte Steward has purchased a home in Palm Desert.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bower spent a few days at the Lazy H Sky ranch at Rincon Lake. They were joined there by Mrs.

Bunny Ward to attend the art exhibit. Among local artists there were John Hilton and Chester Brodie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Kittle of Indio were hosts at one of their "Kittle Ranch Bean Dinners" Saturday night. Among Palm Desert residents attending were the Tom Browns, Rudd Hackborns, Dudley Steels, Adrian Schwileks and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morry.

Edgar Bergen was a recent visitor at Palm Desert sunning and swimming.

Lt. Stanford Kibbe of the Army Air Force visited his Aunt, Edith Eddy Ward last week. He is en route to Germany for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Allen welcomed their first child, a daughter, named Lori Bess, last week. The little girl is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Allen of Sun Lodge colony.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Geiger of Manhattan Beach, came to Palm Desert on May Day to have Dr. Martin Baker of Palm Desert Community church baptize their daughter, Denise Geiger. God-parents were Mr. and Mrs. William McLauchlan, former long-time residents of Palm Desert.

EDITOR'S CORNER

By Oliver B. Jaynes

COUNTY CHARTER — Residents of Palm Springs and vicinity will be canvassed this week to sign a petition which proposes the establishment of a new form of government for Riverside county. The proposal is that the outmoded constitution be abandoned in favor of a new Charter form of government with all supervisors elected at large and an office of county manager established.

The petition calls upon the board of supervisors to set a date for the election of 15 "Freeholders" who would have six months in which to draw up a proposed Charter. At another election the voters would then have the opportunity of adopting or denying the new form of government.

The procedure would be something like this: The supervisors set the election date and any citizen of the county who has been a qualified voter for five years can become a candidate for Freeholder. Fifteen will be elected, presumably representing all sections of the county. The Freeholders will then set about preparing a charter. They will hold hearings in all sections of the county to determine the wishes of the people concerning the provisions of the new system. While the Freeholders can submit any plan they please, it may be assumed that two provisions will definitely be included: Election of the supervisors at large after nomination by districts, and the change to a county manager set-up. There could be many other drastic changes in our county government.

For many years now there has been a growing feeling by residents of this section that they have not had fair representation in the county government and that the situation has worked a hardship upon them. Dissatisfaction has reached the point where an organization has been formed looking to the formation of a new county. The question right now is whether or not a new Charter for the county would help the large eastern portion which pays 40 percent of the taxes, has approximately 30 percent of the registered voters and one member out of five in the board of supervisors. One of the reasons for proposing the Charter is to avoid a division of the county. A petition to the supervisors requesting this Freeholder election says, in part:

"Petitioner, as a most cogent circumstance favoring the granting of its petition, calls to official attention the recent department of public men, leaders and citizens of the eastern portion of this County. That department, in part, consisted of numerous public gatherings at which and with general applause, speakers advocated the division of this County and the creation of a new county of its eastern portion, to have a government which would more adequately meet the requirements of the area; that this disposition had the favorable comment of the public press of the area; that committees were formed to report the feasibility of the proposed action.

"That the progress of the movement has been arrested only to await the disposition of this petition, it being generally accepted that its granting would be strong evidence that the measures of which it is preliminary would be effected and the redress contemplated by the drastic measure fully obtained."

Opinions vary widely as to whether a change to election of supervisors at large and a county manager set-up would help this area. Most agree that a Charter COULD be written that would solve our problem quite well. The question is: Would it be? The Desert County, Inc. group which is considering the need of establishing a new county says this about the proposal:

"A County charter form of government could be a solution. It would depend entirely on the Charter and the people who were administering it. But it is unlikely, under the present County setup, whether or not a Charter could be drawn up and adopted by the necessary majority of all the people in Riverside County that would really give the Fourth District in the Desert Area its fair share of representation based on assessed valuation, population and taking into consideration the probable expansion here in the next few years. Desert County, Inc. would be in favor of calling an election for Freeholders to draw up a proposed County Charter and offer all support to any proposed Charter that would solve the problems in the Desert County area."

Proponents of the Freeholder election point out that, in asking for it, the petitioners are still "free to work for or against a charter; free to work for or against any provisions that you believe should be included in or excluded from a charter; free to work for or against any person who may choose to run as a Freeholder." The question arises, however, as to whether we could defeat a Charter we considered unfavorable with only one-third of the votes. Proponents think we could.

It may be worth a trial — or we may be going from the frying pan into the fire. Looking at the proposal from the standpoint of the county as a whole — as we also should be — bringing the county government up to date seems to be the very sensible thing to do.

This information should help you decide whether or not you want to sign the petition. It is written for that purpose—not to influence you one way or another.

TRY AND STOP ME

By Bennett Cerf

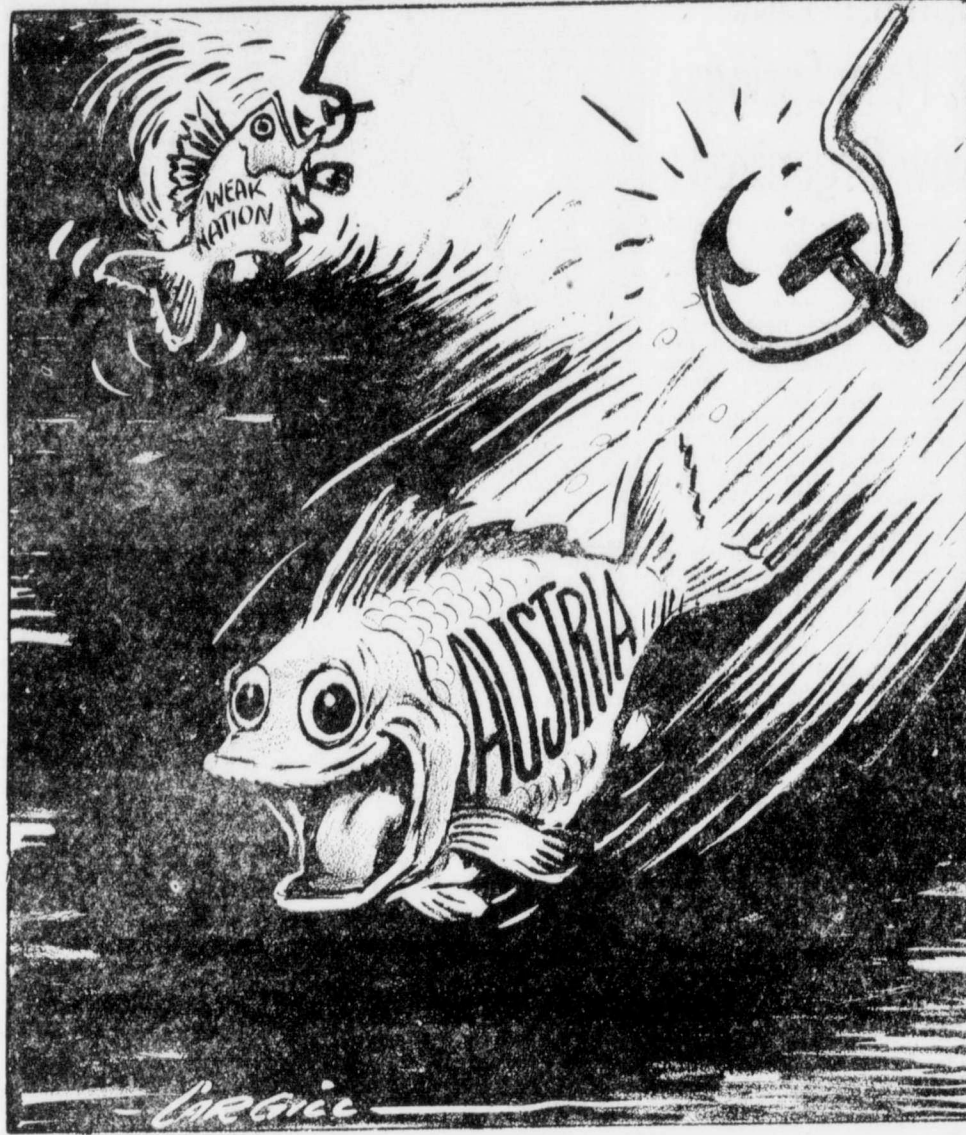

KNOCKED OFF his feet by a speeding roadster, an irate citizen had his young lady driver hauled into court.

"What gear were you driving in when you hit this poor man?" demanded the judge. She cooed, "What I'm wearing now, Your Honor. Just this little old strapless number."

There is a bit of a story, intriguing even if it isn't true, about how the Cunard superliner "Queen Mary" got its name. Since time immemorial, Cunard ships always had names ending in "IA," and in keeping with this tradition, the new addition to the fleet was scheduled to be called "Queen Victoria." When the Cunard chairman called on King George V, however, to acquaint him with this fact, and began by saying, "We're pleased to tell you our new liner will be named after one of Britain's greatest queens—" the King interrupted happily, "Good, good! Her Majesty, I know, will be simply delighted!" So, the "Queen Mary" it became, and the good lady herself christened the ship as it slid down the ways.

OFF THE HOOK?

Library Notes

The variety of questions posed daily at the Welwood Murray Memorial Library by the people of Palm Springs is truly astonishing.

What is the average humidity in Palm Springs and how does it compare to the average humidity in Phoenix, Arizona? This was for an asthmatic patient trying to decide on the climate most salubrious for his ailment.

What kind of a fruit is an "ethrog" and can it be adapted to this climate? This was for a date rancher in the valley who knew that ethrogs were used in a Jewish ceremonial and wanted to grow them if it were both possible and profitable.

Is "ciba" a word? This for a group of people slaving over a hot Scrabble board.

The New Jersey Library Study Commission report referred to in this column last week lists answering questions as one of the important jobs of a library. "Good reference service," says the report, "saves businesses and individuals great amounts of money. Good reference collections of books and other materials are necessary tools for good librarians to answer these questions."

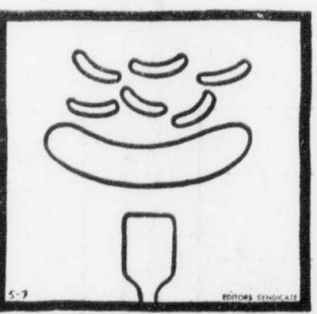

Many books are purchased yearly in direct response to the requests of library users, as for example The Thomas Register of American Manufacturers. This annual is the basic reference book for identifying manufacturers and their products. It lists more than 70,000 products under the name of the manufacturer, under the name of the product, and also under the trade name; and it also supplies addresses, names of company officers, capital invested and commercial associations. The Thomas Register is now on the reference shelves of the library.

"Every man has the right to find out, read, study, learn, and understand for himself. This has led to great discoveries, and inventions. It has revealed great social truths. It is the basis for individual initiative and individual liberty."

Doodles

By ROGER PRICE

"MOTHER HOT DOG PROTECTING LITTER FROM MUSTARD PADDLE"

I picked this Doodle about Mother Love because (a) Sunday was Mother's Day and (b) everyone is in favor of it and I figure it's a clever way to build up circulation for this excellent newspaper. If, for instance, I'd titled this Doodle: "Mother Hot Dog Abandoning Young to Save Mustard Paddle," I'd get hundreds of angry letters telling me to go back where I came from (the only place I never get letters like this from is West Virginia which is where I do come from). And again, if the Doodle were called: "Mother Hot Dog Turning Babies Over to Mustard Paddle to Save Herself," I would probably be mobbed by thousands of irate Mothers. And rightly so!

CONFIDENT LIVING

By Norman Vincent Peale

How to Find Yourself

Three years ago, a friend of mine asked me to talk with his son, then a sophomore in college. The boy was headed for the rocks, the father said, and told me of several escapades in which the youth had been involved.

"I suppose you never did anything like that when you were his age?" I suggested. The father admitted that he had, but, of course, he thought his son's circumstances were different.

I met the boy and had a talk with him. I couldn't help but like him. He had, I believe, the most expressive eyes I have ever seen in a young man. But they hadn't helped him much; there was no getting around the fact that he was all mixed up. He lacked organization in his life and he had no confidence in himself or his abilities.

"My father is a great person," he told me. "I admire him tremendously because he is so sure of himself. I would like to be that way, but I know I haven't got it in me."

This was particularly interesting because the father had confessed to me that he had suffered from the same self-doubt when he was young. "Go look at yourself in the mirror over there. Look at your eyes. I think they are two of the finest I have ever seen."

He blushed. "My mother used to like my eyes," he said. "Someone once suggested that the eyes are the mirror of the soul." I went on. "Every once in a while, you should look in a mirror and tell yourself that anybody with eyes like those should never let them blur. They are strong, inspiring eyes. Keep them that way."

I saw this young man again recently. He is now a senior and, far from being in trouble, is actually on the Dean's list. When I asked him how he had overcome his difficulties, he reminded me of the five-point program I had given him at that meeting three years before. You may find it interesting and helpful as he did.

First, pray for a true knowledge of yourself. Most people have no real idea of their own possibilities. They are always discounting themselves.

Second, picture what you want to be and hold that picture persistently. It will tend to actualize in fact.

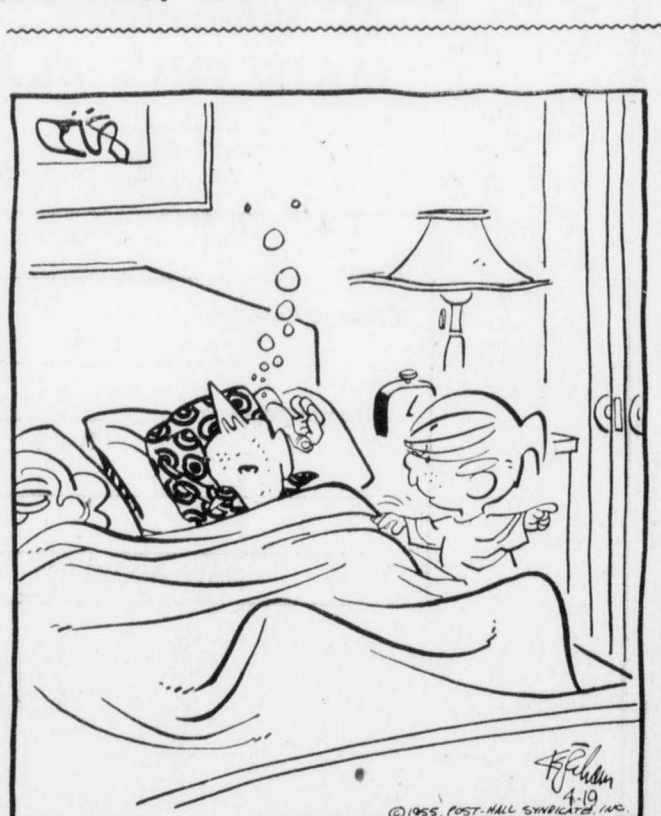

Third, picture God as always helping you. There was no egotism in that statement. It isn't egotism when you begin to know what you really are. It isn't egotism to look beneath your defeats and see a tremendous God-given personality. Life for any one of us cannot really begin until we have a true knowledge of ourselves as persons.

Taken by and large, I think it can be safely said that the average person does not really comprehend his best possibilities. So if you will use the practical program I gave the college student, it will help you to find yourself. By its use you can make your life more meaningful and constructive than it now is. And don't we all want to be that way?

"Pssst! You WANNA SEE THE MILKMAN'S NEW TRUCK?"

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

I quit counting sheep.
Am ready for sleep.
Of worries I am shorn.
And then comes a blast.
That wakes me up fast.
An oaf and his auto horn.

Jack Benny may have had his troubles with the horn that blows at midnight. I've got mine with the horns that blow at midnight and up to 2:30 a.m. or later. It has been a long time since I've paid my respects to the fool and his horn who are not soon parted. But reading an interview with a doctor and traffic expert the other day, put me back on the track.

SEEMS THAT THIS savant is of the belief that if automobiles were NOT equipped with horns, the traffic accident rate would be cut in half. His theory is that the careless driver puts too much reliance on the horn. If there's trouble ahead, he just blots the horn and barges through, figuring everyone will get out of the way. This doctor says that if there were no horns on automobiles, drivers would have to slow up, proceed cautiously, and be in shape for any emergency. They'd know that they could not blast people out of their way. Sounds reasonable but would they?

NOW, AS TO THAT horn at midnight—and 2 a.m. The California state law provides that the automobile horn may be blown ONLY as a warning signal. But not enough motorists are aware of that. They are of the opinion that it is meant to summon people and to save themselves a few steps. Hence, the night blasts. A husband (or wife) sits in the family car before a night spot while the other half (wife or husband) sits inside. And although it is past the witching hour, which is what some people term midnight, they stand on the horn. And on these quiet desert nights, they cause people for blocks to mutter imprecations.

NOW THAT I HAVE satisfied the few customers who claim they like to hear me gripe, will leave the subject of horn-blowing with this one parting thought. As mentioned in these pieces often before, I think a good invention would be to have the horn and the emergency brake work in unison. Think of the bashed noses and cracked windshields among the horn-blowing fraternity!

And while on the subject of motorists—note where someone left two puddles in a parked car the other day in the noontime sun. The puddles were unhappy and expressed their feelings by what was termed "creating a disturbance" on the police blotter. So Humane Officer John Thomas was summoned, rescued the canines and took them into custody. The owner had to claim his pets at the officer's home. Served him right.

SGT. BOB YOUNG has the answer to why there was no yellow pedestrian stop sign at the crosswalk between those two parking places on Indian Avenue back of the Bank of America and near The Sun office. He said there had been signs there but they were well battered. And the police were seeking a rubber sign to put there. Motorists turning into one of the two parking lots on either side of the street were bashing the signs regularly. The casualties were high. Too many sharp left turns and the signs were continually prone. But they are trying it again with a standard sign and hoping that motorists will have more consideration for stop signs and/or the paint on their car's fenders.

SEEMS THAT THE BIRDS are in the news again. Police received a frenzied call the other day that someone was peeping on the neighborhood with a rifle. They found a man on the roof of his home, banging away at the birds who were in his strawberry patch. Upon advice of investigating officers, he desisted. . . . Seems you can never satisfy everyone. Most of us are running around saying: "Gee, isn't this wonderful weather?" But three people, by note or vocal manifestation, complained this week. They said the government should stop its A-Bomb tests at Las Vegas, "It's affecting our weather," they said. "That's why it has been so cold lately."

The tenor of all complaints was that we were putting in so many swimming pools and planting so many lawns and so much shrubbery, that it was changing our climate. Well, have really not noted too many changes—and they are all for the good.

READ THIS ONE in the house organ of a midwestern manufacturing firm:

A little boy had been pawing over a stationer's stock of greeting cards for a long time when a clerk asked him, "Can I help you find what you're looking for, son? Birthday card? Get-well card? Anniversary congratulations to your mother and dad?"

"Not exactly," said the little boy, shaking his head. Then wistfully, "You got anything in the line of blank report cards?"

Most of us don't understand that we will get just as bad government as we are willing to stand for and just as good government as we are willing to fight for.—Luther Youngdahl, U.S. District Court Judge.

The Voice of Broadway

By Dorothy Kilgallen

THE BILLY ROSE-JOYCE MATTHEWS nuptials on the fire for several seasons, may be imminent. Joyce has been shopping for monogrammed linens and other troussseau items . . . Mary Fickett, the lovely young actress who succeeded Joan Fontaine as the star of "Tea and Sympathy," has a terrific offstage problem. One of the young boys in the hit is madly in love with her.

Movie menace Jack Palance may make his return to the Broadway stage as Carol Channing's vis-a-vis in the Fall musical, "Delilah." Mrs. Palance, who feels life in New York is happier than it ever could be in Hollywood, would like to settle here for a long stretch and is all in favor of the deal. The stories from London reporting that Terry Moore and Johnnie Ray are a serious romance have insiders laughing from Coast to Coast. It's a publicity stunt on a par with Terry's ermine Bikini in Korea.

SOCIAL NOTE: A Sunday evening cocktail party given by a top-ranking television star was hosted by her masseur . . . If MGM will give the green light, Leslie Caron is in a mood to star in Jean Renoir's "Orvet" on the Great White Way next season. Continental drama critics shellacked the work, and the author gave up trying to adapt it for the screen, but Leslie is reportedly in love with it.

The new queen in Sammy Davis Jr.'s life is Ruth King, a model. The 5th Avenue department stores have organized for an all-out war on shoplifters—a big problem, and bigger now that dope addiction has increased. They're doubling forces, installing the most modern gimmicks, and pooling all information to battle the merchandise thieves.

MARION MARLOWE'S SONG about Godfrey, for which she was supposed to have paid $3,500 before she was fired, has undergone revision—understandably enough—for her forthcoming supper club tour. Audiences flip watching Betty Grable prance through her musical numbers in "Three for the Show." She does a Marilyn Monroe—in dances staged by Jack Cole, who did similar numbers for Marilyn—and the satire is amazing and amusing.

Marriage has changed Olivia de Havilland, who used to shrink from publicity. She and bridegroom Pierre Galante threw coins in the Fountain of Trevi in Rome while literally dozens of photographers snapped the happy honeymooners. . . . A little something to relieve the monotony of rock 'n' roll records: A lab in Connecticut has released a disc on which the experts have recorded earthquake shock waves.

HATE TO DO THIS to you, but the Cafe Geiger on East 86th street has no counter. . . . Xavier Cugat is waving a contract at Kiko Gonzales, the handsome boy from Brazil who beats the tambourine in El Morococo's Sunday midnight shows. . . . In case Mabel Mercer's fans are wondering where she is singing since the fire at the Show Spot, they can find her at a place called the Pin-Up Room, Lexington at 34th Street.

Joe Louis, who will open a press agency office on 57th Street, is closing a deal that would make a beat his first client. (And what will the Joe Louis milk company think of THAT?) . . . Duet illuminated by the pink lights of Le Beaujolais: Actress Gloria Strouck and playwright Arthur Laurents.

ROLAND PETIT is writing a revue in which he will function as director as well as star. Bride Jeannine will be another headliner, and he would like two Americans to round out the bill. His intent is to present the show first in Paris, then on Broadway. . . . One of the Borscht Belt's most famous hotels finally caught the culprits who planted stench bombs on the premises. The investigation cost the inn a fortune. . . . Pat Rooney Jr. has given up all his stage aspirations, he's so contentedly ensconced as a doo impresario in Lake Blauvelt, New Hampshire. His place is the favorite college hangout in the area, and he's prospering. . . . Cafe Society, the Greenwich Village night spot, back to a long-ago policy—topflight jazz. The place that once launched Teddy Wilson and Meade Lux Lewis presents the Buddy Rich band. Billy Taylor's trio and a highly touted girl singer called Chris Connors.

THE WEST COAST producers would love to get Bob Hope's 16-year-old daughter, Linda, on the screen. She's a beauty. . . . The Bill Hunts (she was top cover girl Barbara Dunne) have decided to separate. . . . Key figures in the second Joe DiMaggio story—that a playboy further whose activities have been under surveillance for some time, must have furnished valuable information to the powers-that-be.

If not how did he escape all mention in the late unpleasantness? . . . Cesare Siepi's first film, "Don Giovanni," which was shot in color at the Salzburg Festival last summer, is being shown in London at the Royal Festival Hall once a week and presented like a live musical event. Ads are to be found only in the musical sections of the English newspapers and tickets are concert (not cinema) priced.

NEW YORK CAVALCADE

By Louis Sobol

HOLLYWOOD: It is a cheerful atmosphere in this film capitol. The picture lots are humming, actors and actresses are working steadily — if the film folks don't want them, the teevee cameras welcome them — the managements have forgotten their vows to cut the fantastic salaries, and Cadillacs and Jaguars are readily available without these under-the-table payments.

Yes, indeed, everything is tres gay here and there hasn't been a sentimental break-up of a popular film couple in forty-eight hours. (Dear Boss: If anything happens before press time, please change line to fit—or just forget the whole paragraph.)

Saloon chatter revolves about Mario Lanza's future—he through as a box office asset—will his latest walkout enhance him as an attraction the first time he does fulfill a commitment? . . . Ali Khan has been in and out of town so that he is no longer a novelty, and at LaRue's they have a special entrance for him so he can avoid the rubberneckers. . . . Mike Romanoff still looks like a regular old guy, little domain, but the report is no one has been barred in recent weeks which indicates that Mike's mellowing or that these screen folks are behaving.

We dropped in on Charlie Morrison's Mocambo and heard a voice more thrilling to us than Lanza's ever could be because this guy is a fine showman, has a love for his work and consideration for his public. I mean Alan Jones—who is hitting those rich high notes with more ease and fluidity than ever before in his career. And evidently, it is a happy man who sings out now—for he and the beautiful Irene Grey, after their silly little tiff, are back together—closer than ever. Anita Ekberg was in a dancing mood at the Mocambo, too—her man for the evening being Charlie O'Curran, who seems to have doused his torch for his ex-Betty Hutton, completely. Although Anita is no body to shut your eyes against, Charlie seemed more interested in discussing Patti Page with us—so maybe what those pesky columnists have been writing about the two may be so. Sometimes, you get your first hint of things right out of the gossip columns—now isn't that a fact? We peeked into a passing shower, and by golly it wasn't Acher North who was driving Sidney Skolsky to Schwalb's drugstore—it was Sidney's pert little wife. . . . Louella settled down with us at LaRue's. "Off to one of those fabulous Hollywood parties?" we wanted to know. The queen of the Hollywood columnist's sighed, "I'm going over to play bridge with my brother." . . . In the lobby of the Beverly Hills hotel, Lucy Monroe wandered around like a dazed lost sheep. . . . A fellow in a blue sport shirt and brown sport jacket and gray pants rushed by us almost completely disguised unless you looked at him—Burt Lancaster.

We went over to the Coconut Grove and were we surprised? A sawed-off runt of a lad put on a whale of a show—he's a comer, alright, alright—and we recommend him to the attention of Mr. Lou Walters of the Latin Quarter and Mr. Jules Podell of the Copacabana. Goes by the name of Mickey Rooney—somebody or other out of pictures who was once married to, among others, that well known lady, Ava Gardner. . . . Reminds me, Frank Sinatra's turned down a couple of heavy bids to star in Broadway musicals skidded for next season.

Well, as I was saying, everything is cheerful in Hollywood—so why am I homesick for Manhattan?

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate)

"What's so wonderful about the atom bomb?" demands Jim Backus. "Any 8-year-old kid can make one these days—if you give him a chemistry set, a hammer, and $115,000,000 dollars."

"You're inhibited," an analyst assured a patient. "I want you to talk now about sex." "Well," began the patient haltingly, "it's certainly one of the best stores on Fifth Avenue."

"It isn't that I don't want to get married," explained the new nightclub star to the assistant dramatic editor. "It's just that I haven't found the right amount yet."

THOSE CUTE Pennsylvania Dutch sayings have now invaded the swim suit field. Designed by Hess Brothers of Allentown, Pa., this "Christ for So?" number is premiered poolside at Palm Springs' Howard Manor by Starlet Linda Hanson. That's boy friend Jon Hall assisting her with the blackboard. Embroidered on both front and back of suit, "Christ for So?" is particularly applicable to Hall's and Miss Hanson's situation these days. For it's said to be Pennsylvania Dutch for "Are we going steady?" The movie couple's friends say the answer is "yes" and that Jon and Linda will exchange marital vows as soon as Frances Langford obtains a Florida divorce from Hall.

FREIGHT CARS were piled up over the tracks and passenger trains delayed more than two hours Wednesday night when seven cars of an eastbound freight train left the tracks while moving into a siding. No one was hurt and the damage was estimated at around $5,000.

No One Injured, Damage is Light in Freight Wreck

Damage was nominal and no one was hurt—but seven empty gondolas, part of a 99-car eastbound Southern Pacific freight train Wednesday night provided considerable excitement as they left the rails a short distance west of the Palm Springs depot.

For it took a wrecking crew more than two hours to clear up the right-of-way and repair a damaged track so that traffic could flow smoothly again.

The long east-bound freight was pulling into a siding at the west end of the local yard to permit a west-bound freight to pass. The seven gondola cars, 17 cars back of the locomotive left the rails at the switch and piled up over the other tracks. The local railroad yard was soon full of trains. The west-bound freight and three east-bound passenger trains were stymied until the wreckage was speedily cleared away.

It was estimated that damage would not exceed $5,000.

TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR The Desert Sun

Page 1-b Palm Springs, California, Monday, May 9, 1955 2nd Section

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

The yellow alert has sounded for Summer . . . but the Village hasn't taken it seriously yet . . . Parties are fewer so that you can go to one and enjoy it . . . instead of trying to attend three in one evening . . . El Mirador, The Desert Inn and the Oasis have closed . . . but an indication of a lengthy season . . . is the announcement that Don the Beachcomber will stay open all through May . . . and Town and Country will be open all Summer . . . as Chi Chi and the Palm House always are . . . Biltmore has been a year-around hotel for two seasons . . . and La Fonda and Coronet join the ranks this year . . .

Judging by the crowds at the Desert Air luau . . . and the Roaring 20's party at the Racquet Club . . . plus numerous private parties . . . the Village was filled this weekend . . .

A Surprise

The birthday party for Alice Faye Harris . . . and Bing Crosby . . . given by Jimmy Van Heusen and Pete Pettito Saturday night at the Van Heusen house at Thunderbird . . . was no surprise for Bing . . . but he got one before the evening was over . . . for his four sons arrived for it . . . Gary came down from Los Angeles, where he is appearing on the Tennessee Ernie show . . . the twins Phil and Dennis, who are in the service, came from Ft. Ord and Ft. Riley in Kansas . . . and Lynn was there too . . . It was the first time all the Crosbys have gotten together in six months . . .

This was a lulu of a luau around the swimming pool . . . which was filled with floating flowers and had a fountain in the middle . . . Guests were seated at low tables around the oval pool . . . with Bing at one end and Alice at the other . . . and each had a birthday cake . . . Flowers were flown here from Honolulu . . . and there was Hawaiian music and dancing . . . and tropical foods . . . Among the guests were Alice and Phil Harris, the Bill Perls . . . Bill Morrow and Mary Anderson, the Richard Snidermans . . . Francis Brown and Winona Love . . . the Bobbie Dolans . . . Frank Sinatra and a few others . . .

Hawaiian Motif

Deirdre Treacy is down from San Francisco . . . where her "one man" show is scoring a hit at Marines Memorial Building . . . She will spend a fortnight with her mother Ann Gougler . . . The two of them entertained Thursday evening . . . inviting about 25 friends in for cocktails and buffet . . . with a Hawaiian motif . . . It was more like a trip to the Islands than like a party . . . with everyone in costumes and aloha mood . . . Shrimp curry and other tropical foods featured the buffet . . . Before dinner Ann and Deirdre danced . . . and after dinner they showed slides of Hawaiian scenes taken last Summer . . . Among the guests were the Thomas Hollands, Eleanor Kane, Frank and Alice Scully . . . Mahlon Mansons, Todd Allison, Ralph Shelleys . . . Harold Murphys, Fran Blish, Mabel Rogers . . . Deirdre is doing some painting . . . and some riding . . . while she is here . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pollard celebrated their anniversary last night . . . when they held an informal open house at their new home at 679 Palo Verde . . .

In the mail . . . a printed card from Nellis and Al Hunt in Beverly Hills announces . . . "there's something new 'neath the desert sun . . . that's our new telephone number 5541 (Palm Springs, that is) . . ."

Mr. and Mrs. William August Lippman celebrate their fiftieth anniversary this year . . . and invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. William August Lippman Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Franklin Bryant . . . to a Golden Wedding Anniversary reception honoring their parents . . . It will be held at the Palm Springs Community Church next Sunday afternoon . . .

Weekending here at the Racquet Club were the Barry Sullivans . . . He has been touring with the "Caine Mutiny" Company . . . and was down for a little sunshine and rest . . .

Mothers Day

Here to spend Mothers Day with the Monte Herberts was Betty's mother Mrs. Elizabeth Hurst . . . They joined the Clarence Browns and Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Sties of Brentwood . . . for Mothers Day luncheon at Tamarisk Country Club yesterday . . . The Browns who have been staying at Firecliff Lodge at Palm Desert . . . leave May 26 for Europe . . . The Herberts entertained at another of their dinner series on Friday night . . . with a third coming up in about a week . . .

Latest word from Cleveland is that Bill Eisenman . . . who has been quite sick . . . is much improved . . . Mildred was called home by his illness and left here on 24 hours notice . . . a week ago Tuesday . . . Bill is well enough that they will go ahead with their plans . . . to

TENNIS ANYONE? That . . . and an invitation to enjoy the sunnier side of life at Howard Manor . . . is the message pretty Betty Koch of Los Angeles is bringing in this picture. She is dressed for the occasion, too, in a stunning knitted tennis outfit.

Soroptimist Club Will Celebrate 8th Anniversary

Soroptimist International of Palm Springs, which was chartered in May, 1947, will celebrate its birthday anniversary tomorrow noon, when the Club holds its weekly luncheon meeting at Chi Chi. Past presidents will be guests of honor. Delegates who attended the Pacific Southwest Regional conference at Pasadena will make their convention reports at this meeting.

As this is a social meeting, President Lucille Johnson has asked that members invite guests.

Tomberlin-Bowers Vows Said at All Pink Wedding

The beautiful Venetian Room at The Tennis Club was a pink glow Saturday night for the nuptials of Dixie Bowers of Beverly Hills and Bill Tomberlin, who was chairman of this year's Beaux Arts Ball. Dr. Willard B. Hanson of Desert Hot Springs officiated at the six o'clock wedding.

The pliant brunette bride wore a full-skirted gown of palest pink nylon net with a fitted torso top of iridescent sequins. Her tiny pink organza hat had shoulder length veiling and she carried a nosegay of baby pink roses cased in pink tulle. She was given in marriage by William Bereton of Denver, who flew here for the wedding. The matron of honor, Mrs. Kay Scott of Beverly Hills, was gowned in dusty pink with an empire neckline and a lace ruffled skirt. She wore matching slippers and halo hat and carried a spray bouquet of Argentine carnations.

George E. Cameron, Jr. was best man and hosted the reception which followed the exchange of vows.

Pink floral arrangements decorated the refreshment table where the two-tiered pink iced wedding cake was served.

Guests toasted the newlyweds in pink champagne.

The Tomberlins will be at home at 1151 San Lorenzo road, planning a honeymoon trip later this Summer.

Among the guests invited to the wedding were Messrs. and Mesdames George E. Cameron, Russell Wade, Ed Thrasher, C. C. Hutchens, Tom Curtis, Ray Corliss, J. Ross Clarke, Abe Lipsy of Beverly Hills, Cary Grant, Bob Hope, George Gobel, Also Mmes. Marguerite Trousdale, Margaret Bell, Edith Carlson, Mary Castle, and Messrs. Mark Cramer of Denver, Paul Stock, Frank Harper.

Flying down from San Francisco were the Jack Rosses, Harry Reids and Robert Watsons.

Among those invited to the wedding reception were the William Codys, Alice and Phil Harris, Lucy and Desi Arnaz, Cobina Wright, the Frank Borgeys, Graham Dexters, Don Castles, Jack Jacksons, Hoagy Carmichael, Judith Howard, Robin Barnes, Peggy Lester, Lynne Jennings, the Barney Hinkles, Mrs. Joe Dyer, Mrs. Charles Becker, Jacqueline Cole, Lee Anderson, Betty Hough, Helen Clarke, Bill and Hildy Crawford, and Messrs. Jay Cody, Jamie Ballard, Alan Dale, Jay Welsh, Mark Crawford.

THE ONLY TWO pilots in the country today, who are both great-grandparents are Palm Springs own Zaddie Bunker and James W. Montee of Los Angeles, 92-year-old pioneer in commercial aviation. Montee, who soloed on his 60th birthday, still flies and is a member of C.A.P. With them on left, is Al Brophy of Arcadia. The group was photographed at the Desert Air luau Friday night.

Fabulous Feast, Music and Dancing, Are Highlights of Desert Air's Annual Luau

They were dancing all over the place Friday night at the great annual luau at Desert Air. From the imu the barbecue pit where the pig was cooked, to the Compass Room and out around the pool the Hawaiian-attired merrymakers were dancing to the music of the Islands.

As always Desert Air's glass-walled pool area was a colorful and festive scene, with the hurricane lights twinkling on the tables, and the music and entertainment taking place on the stage at one end. Two life-sized figures in Hawaiian costumes floated in the center of the pool, surrounded by dozens of floating "islands" lighted and laden with flowers.

Each lady received a frangipani lei on arriving, and the management served free rum drinks in bamboo cups before dinner.

The luau feast was sumptuous with an endless array of roast pig, spareribs, planked salmon, chicken, fresh pineapple, and many salads, and an entire table of pastries and desserts.

There was the traditional pig ceremony as the roasted pig and yams were brought forth, and Hank Gogerty had made every effort to make this an authentic luau in the best island style.

The entertainment presented Danny Stewart and his popular recording orchestra, Thurston Knudson and his drums, comedian Bill Whistling, and Freddie Latouli with his exciting knife dance, besides Lani, the Tahitian ceremonial knife dancer and a bevy of graceful dancing girls.

In the crowd were noted Zaddie Bunker and her houseguests, James Montee and his daughter Pauline Copas of Los Angeles, the Terry Rays, Don Camerons, Paul Kellys (just back from Europe), Brian Donlevy, Mary Hurrell, Bob McLaughlin, Graham Alexander, Waltah and Gretchen Clarke, Jackie Cole, Helen Clarke, Sophie August, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Higgins, Bob Howard, Al Brophy of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Willis.

A full moon rode in the cloud-clotted sky, looking down on this third annual luau.

Emblem Club Prepares for Institution

Palm Springs Emblem Club No. 274 met Wednesday night, May 4, to practice for their coming Institution, scheduled for May 21.

The club was honored to have the assistance of Mrs. Mildred Thorn, State President; Mrs. Vivienne Schroeder, State Marshall, and Mrs. Elayne Case, Past President of Hemet, all of Hemet. After the meeting, ice cream, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Lucille Pavy.

It was announced that a Testimonial Dinner will be given May 14 in Hemet, honoring Mrs. Thorn who was recently elected State President. It will be a semi-formal affair and members of the Palm Springs Emblem Club plan to attend.

Mrs. Mildred Thorn expects to attend the Emblem Club's next meeting, which will be Wednesday, May 11.

Landrus, Associate Guardian. Jobs Daughters officials are: Carolyn Knapp, retiring Queen; Barbara Graham, incoming Queen; Jaci Sale, Senior Princess; Nancy Hobbs, Junior Princess; Barbara Hobbs, Guide; Carolyn Reich, Marshall.

Refreshments will be served following the installation.

Jobs Daughters Will Install Tomorrow Night

The 15th installation of Jobs Daughters will be held at the Masonic Temple, 1006 East Ramon, tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. with the public invited to attend.

Dr. William P. Aikin will act as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Dorothy Sproul is Deputy Grand Guardian, Mrs. Dorothy Groth, Grand Guardian, and Russell

THOUSAND PALMS

By ELIZABETH NELSON — Phone 154

WALLACE RE-ELECTED
 Dewey D. Wallace, owner and operator of the Trading Post in Thousand Palms and long-time resident there, was re-elected president of Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce at the organization's annual meeting last week.

Karyl Thompson was re-elected vice-president; Mrs. Walter G. Bovee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jack Singler, recording secretary and treasurer. Miss Carmen Durand and Fred B. Hess were elected to the board of directors. Other directors are: Walter G. Bovee, A. Hal Cornelius, Eugene Waldeck and the officers of the Chamber.

Mrs. Bovee was re-appointed the Chamber's representative on the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning committee by President Wallace and Hess was engaged to audit the Chamber's books.

Mrs. Jack Singler reported on the last meeting of the CVAPC. At the request of the Shangri-La Palms Property Owners association a stop sign has been placed at the intersection of Arbol Real and Ramon road. Ed Finston and his sisters, the Misses Eve and Mary Finston of Shangri-La Palms were surprised last week by a visit from relatives they had not recently known — Mr. and Mrs. William Torgerson. Mrs. Torgerson is a niece. They reside in Phoenix.

Directors of Realty Board Discuss Plans

Board of directors of Palm Springs Real Estate board met last week at the home of Terry Ray, new president, for a discussion of plans for the new year.

Selection of committee chairmen for the board will be announced by Ray soon.

Guild's Dessert-Fashion Show Highly Successful

Around two hundred women filled the livingroom and patio of Mrs. Charles E. Dan's home, at 210 El Camino Way, Wednesday evening for the benefit dessert-fashion show given by St. Paul's Guild.

The hour-and-a-half-long fashion showing by Beebees was commented by George Beebe Jr. and Jim Hadlock. Featuring the Nadler after five gowns, sportswear and furs, the show was highlighted by the new antelope wraps, Bavarian made and styled by Jacques, they came in black and pastels, some beaded and some plain. The furs, in the $300 to $400 bracket, included a Breath of Spring mink stole, a natural palomino cape jacket and a pastel mink in choir boy style. Shoes were from Ted Land.

Modeling for the show were Barbara Foster, Jan Hanz, Joan Dowell, Margo Dalton, Helen Tobak, Melissa Hall, Nancy Lucas and Bobby Denier. Mrs. Lois Lux provided the piano accompaniment.

Judge Therieau New President for Lions Club

Judge Eugene E. Therieau was named president of Palm Springs Lions club Thursday noon when members unanimously voted approval of the report of the nominating committee.

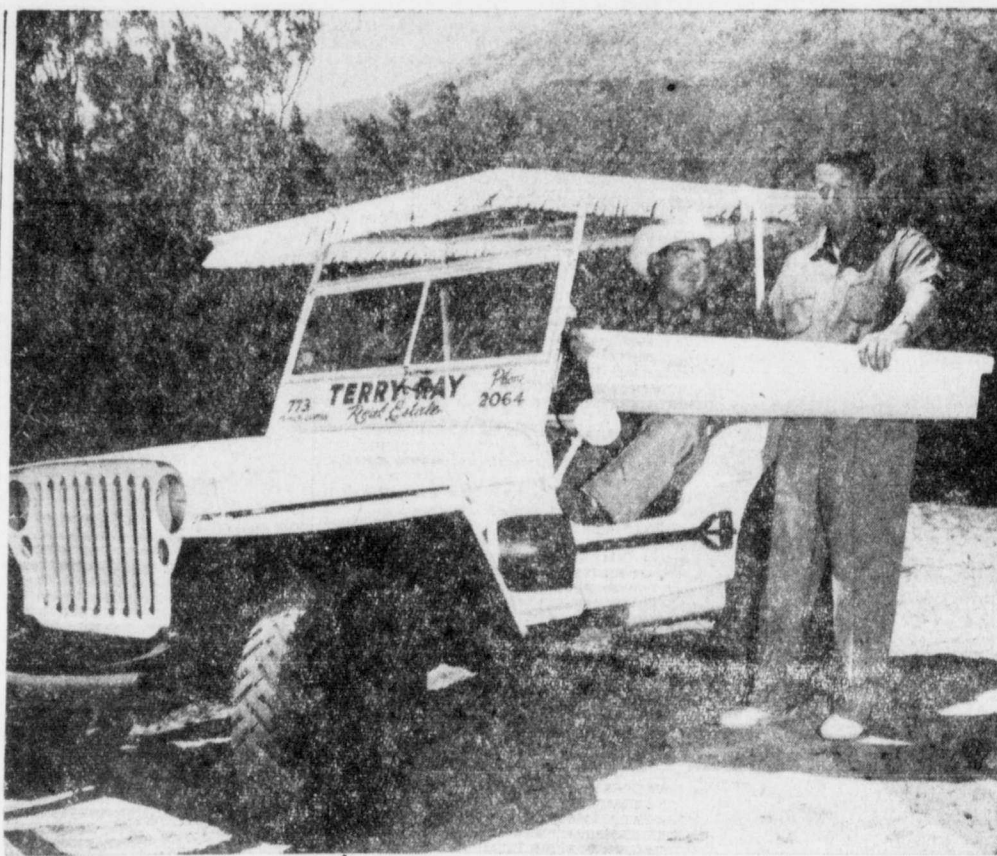

Other officers elected at the meeting, held in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi were: Elmer Walberg, first vice-president; Alex Hammond, second vice-president; Dr. Julius Kaplan, third vice-president; Kenneth Brott, secretary; Henry White, treasurer; Joe Henderson, tall-twister; Marvin Fritz, Lion tamer.

DIRECTORS OF THE CLUB are Charles McDonald, Dr. Clarence E. Smith, newly-elected, and Joe Butler and George Schroeder, hold-overs.

The new officers will be installed Thursday, May 19, at a Ladies' Night dinner to be held at Deep Well Inn. Dancing will follow the dinner and installation.

PAST PRESIDENTS of the Lions club were honored at Thursday's luncheon with Herbert Samson as chairman for the day. They were introduced and each gave a short talk on their regime.

Past presidents at the luncheon were A. J. M. Gardiner, Mayor Florian G. Boyd, Merrill Crockett, Culver Nichols, Charles Burket, Lloyd Simon, Raymond M. Sorum, Dr. Frank A. Purcell, Roy W. Colegate, Paul G. Summers, Earl Hough, Harold West, and retiring from Others, unable to be present were Ray Cree, first president of the club, Joe Schobe, Francis Crocker, Dr. Russell M. Gray, Clarence Hyde, Harold Hicks and Charles McGann.

Beach Man Buys Local Credit Bureau

George W. Hair, of Long Beach and a home owner here, announced Friday that he had purchased the assets of the Palm Springs Credit Bureau, 123 East Andreas road, and herein-after the firm would be known as the Credit Bureau of Palm Springs and Coachella Valley. Hair plans to take personal charge of the business.

Ray, Dunlevie Sell Large Tract in Country Club Area

Terry Ray and Ernie Dunlevie, associate, in his office, have been active in selling undeveloped property much of which is now being improved and an addition to the city.

Recently they closed a transaction which resulted in The Ranch club and plans for a 160-acre subdivision the first part of a proposed 640-acre development.

Summer operation of parking meters will go into effect June 1 and continue until August 31, with a slightly expanded coverage this year.

City council Tuesday evening authorized the recommendations of City Manager R. W.

Peterson and Police Chief August G. Kettmann.

The area where meters will be in operation, and where enforcement will be in effect is as follows: Palm Canyon drive between Alejo and Arenas road; Tahquitz drive, Andreas and Amado roads, between Palm Canyon drive and Indian avenue.

Additions to the previous coverage are Tahquitz drive and Amado road.
